THE 50th ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

How tremendously pleased the late Richard Cardinal Cushing and the Guild's beloved Father Mort Gavin, S.J. would be. For a continuous half century, the Dinner named in their honor remains the Massachusetts labor-management community's signature event at the start of each Holiday Season.

On December 2nd, the Labor Guild and the region's labor-management community will gather to celebrate an exciting milestone- the 50th Anniversary of the Cushing-Gavin Awards Dinner.

The Labor Guild is the Archdiocesan agency responsible for inspiring and supporting men and women to act with conscience, know-how, and courage in labor-management relations. This dinner is a capstone of the year's effort, and the much-needed funds raised directly support the Guild's operation and mission.

As always, the heart of our 50th CGA is to showcase and honor this year's four newest CGA Awardees: Francis "Franny" Boudrow, Michael Felsen, Susan Horwitz and Glenn Kingsbury, for the excellence, vision, and integrity they have exemplified in their distinguished labor relations careers. They join an illustrious cadre of past-CGA Awardees who collectively represent a regional Labor Relations Hall of Fame.

So please JOIN US for CGA's Golden Anniversary, and help us honor these four wonderful 2016 Awardees. It's going to be a great party, and the Guild will love seeing you!

Sincerely,

FATHER J. BRYAN HEHIR

"We all tend to live in our own special isolation, building walls about ourselves, and considering only the problems that are closest to each of us individually. Tonight we sit together in a spirit of brotherhood and sisterhood, recognizing that most of our difficulties we share with each other, most of our ideals we pursue together, and most of our progress will be made together or it will not be made at all."

- Richard Cardinal Cushing,
First Cushing Award Dinner, 1967
